COACH HYDE

1939 Football Season

The 1939 football squad completed a nine-game schedule ending in the upper third of the pigskin class with six games won and three lost. By means of a fast backfield and a rugged line, the Bulldogs vanquished two-thirds of their foes, rolling up 140 points to their opponents' 89. In contrast, the '38 squad landed in fifth place with 89 points to their opponents' 142.

North Dallas crushed some powerful elevens while rolling over its opponents. The strong Sherman Bearcats, district champions, fell victim to the Bulldog attack and the toe of Jimmy Fitzpatrick, 7-0. Dallas Technical, victor over Breckenridge High, the mighty dictator of the South Texas grid wars, had the bad fortune of meeting North Dallas after a humiliating defeat by Woodrow Wilson. The Wolves were promptly tamed, 14-0.

Midway in the season, big Bob Mullarkey was converted from a tackle to a blocking back. As a result, the line was weakened considerably throughout the rest of the season.

Two hard-fought games stood out in the Bulldog schedule. Opening the season, the Canines met the Sunset Bisons and downed them 13-7. Landon (Red) Irwin distinguished himself as all-city material while disintegrating the Purple forwards with his hammering charges. After a poor showing in the Woodrow game, the Orange and White line rose to outplay and outfight the entire Adamson eleven in one of the most singular, outstanding performances since the introduction of the moleskin maulers at North Dallas. Adamson won 14-12 only after sixty minutes of thrill-packed ball. This exciting contest topped off a Thanksgiving Day dinner, and a successful season for Coaches "Potts" Anderson and Rufus Hyde.

Basketball

Without sufficient veteran basketeers, the North Dallas quintet, coached by O. A. Cruce, ended a disastrous season, tying Forest Avenue for the cellar. The Bulldogs suffered nine defeats while bagging their one victory.

Outpointed, but not outfought, the Canine quintet displayed a vigorous, hustling brand of ball to the delight of the spectators. Denton, the regional finalists, escaped with a 18-15 victory while nearly bowing to the fighting five of the Orange and White. Led by Captain Lawrence Lott, All-City selection, North Dallas defeated Forest and dropped some other close thrillers in the second half.

Seven lettermen, including Co-captains John Donahue, and Lawrence Lott, will return next year. Lettermen were Lawrence Lott, John Donahue, Charles O'Dell, Howard Swindler, Charles Lancaster, Jimmie Wilson, Elwood Townsley, Richard Hoskins, Jack Curry, and Elwood Love.

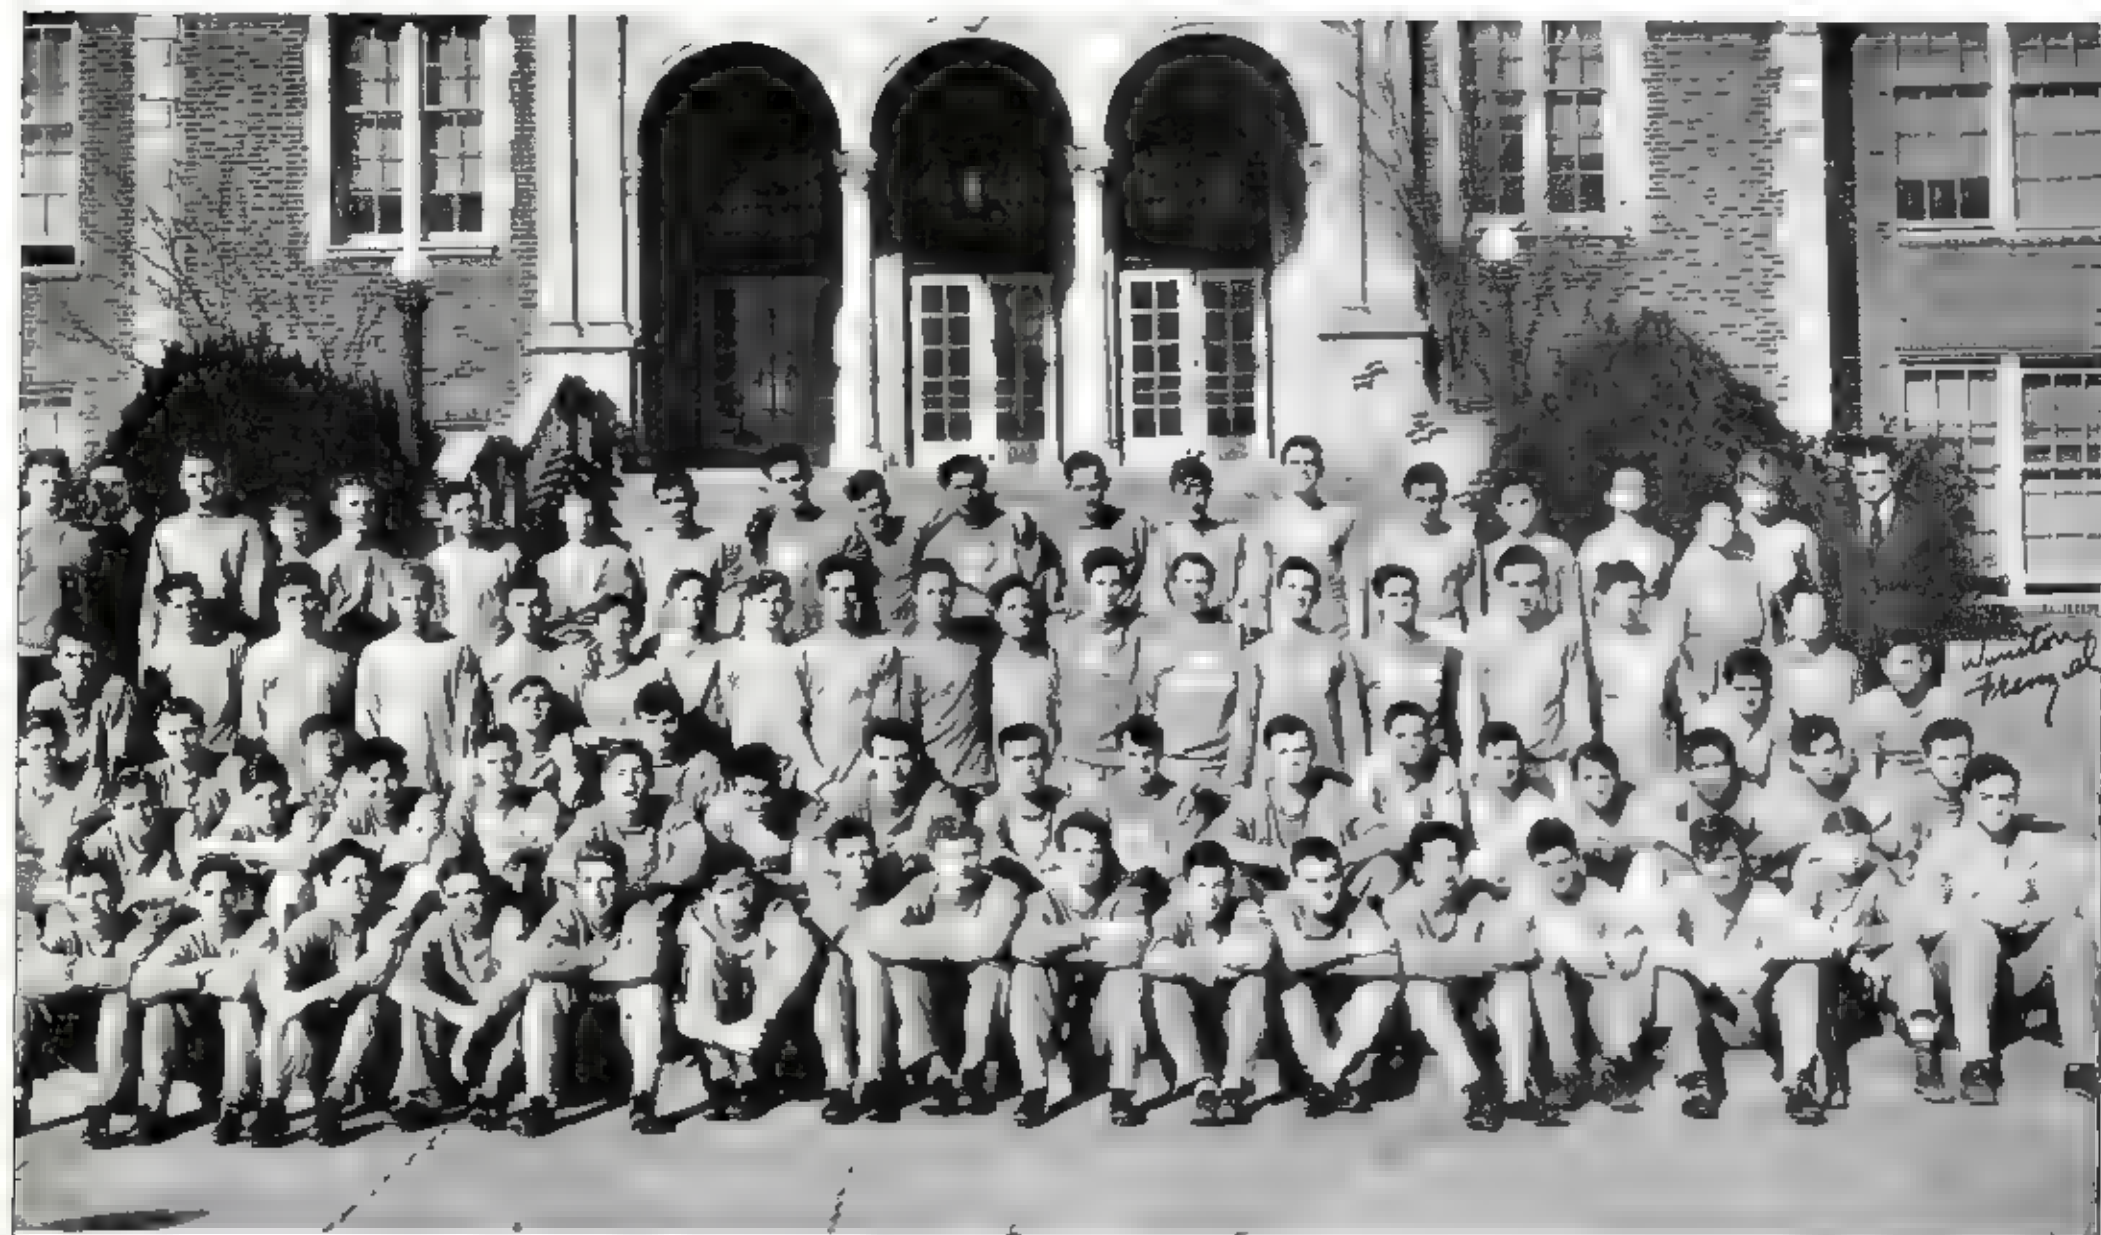

Eddie Marie Daniels

Tennis

With only one returning letterman, the North Dallas tennis team opened their 1940 season with a victory over the Adamson racqueteers. The two doubles teams won while George Wunderlick, co-captain and letterman, defeated his opponent in the singles' competition.

Two losses to Woodrow Wilson and Sunset lowered the Bulldogs' average. The Forest Avenue netters gained a tie with the Canines in mid-season.

For lack of experienced netters, the team ended up in the lower bracket. George Wunderlick and Helen Swanson were elected co-captains for the season. The team consisted of George Wunderlick, Helen Swanson, Stuart Rogers, J. M. Howell, Faye Lipper, and Eddie Marie Daniels.

Track

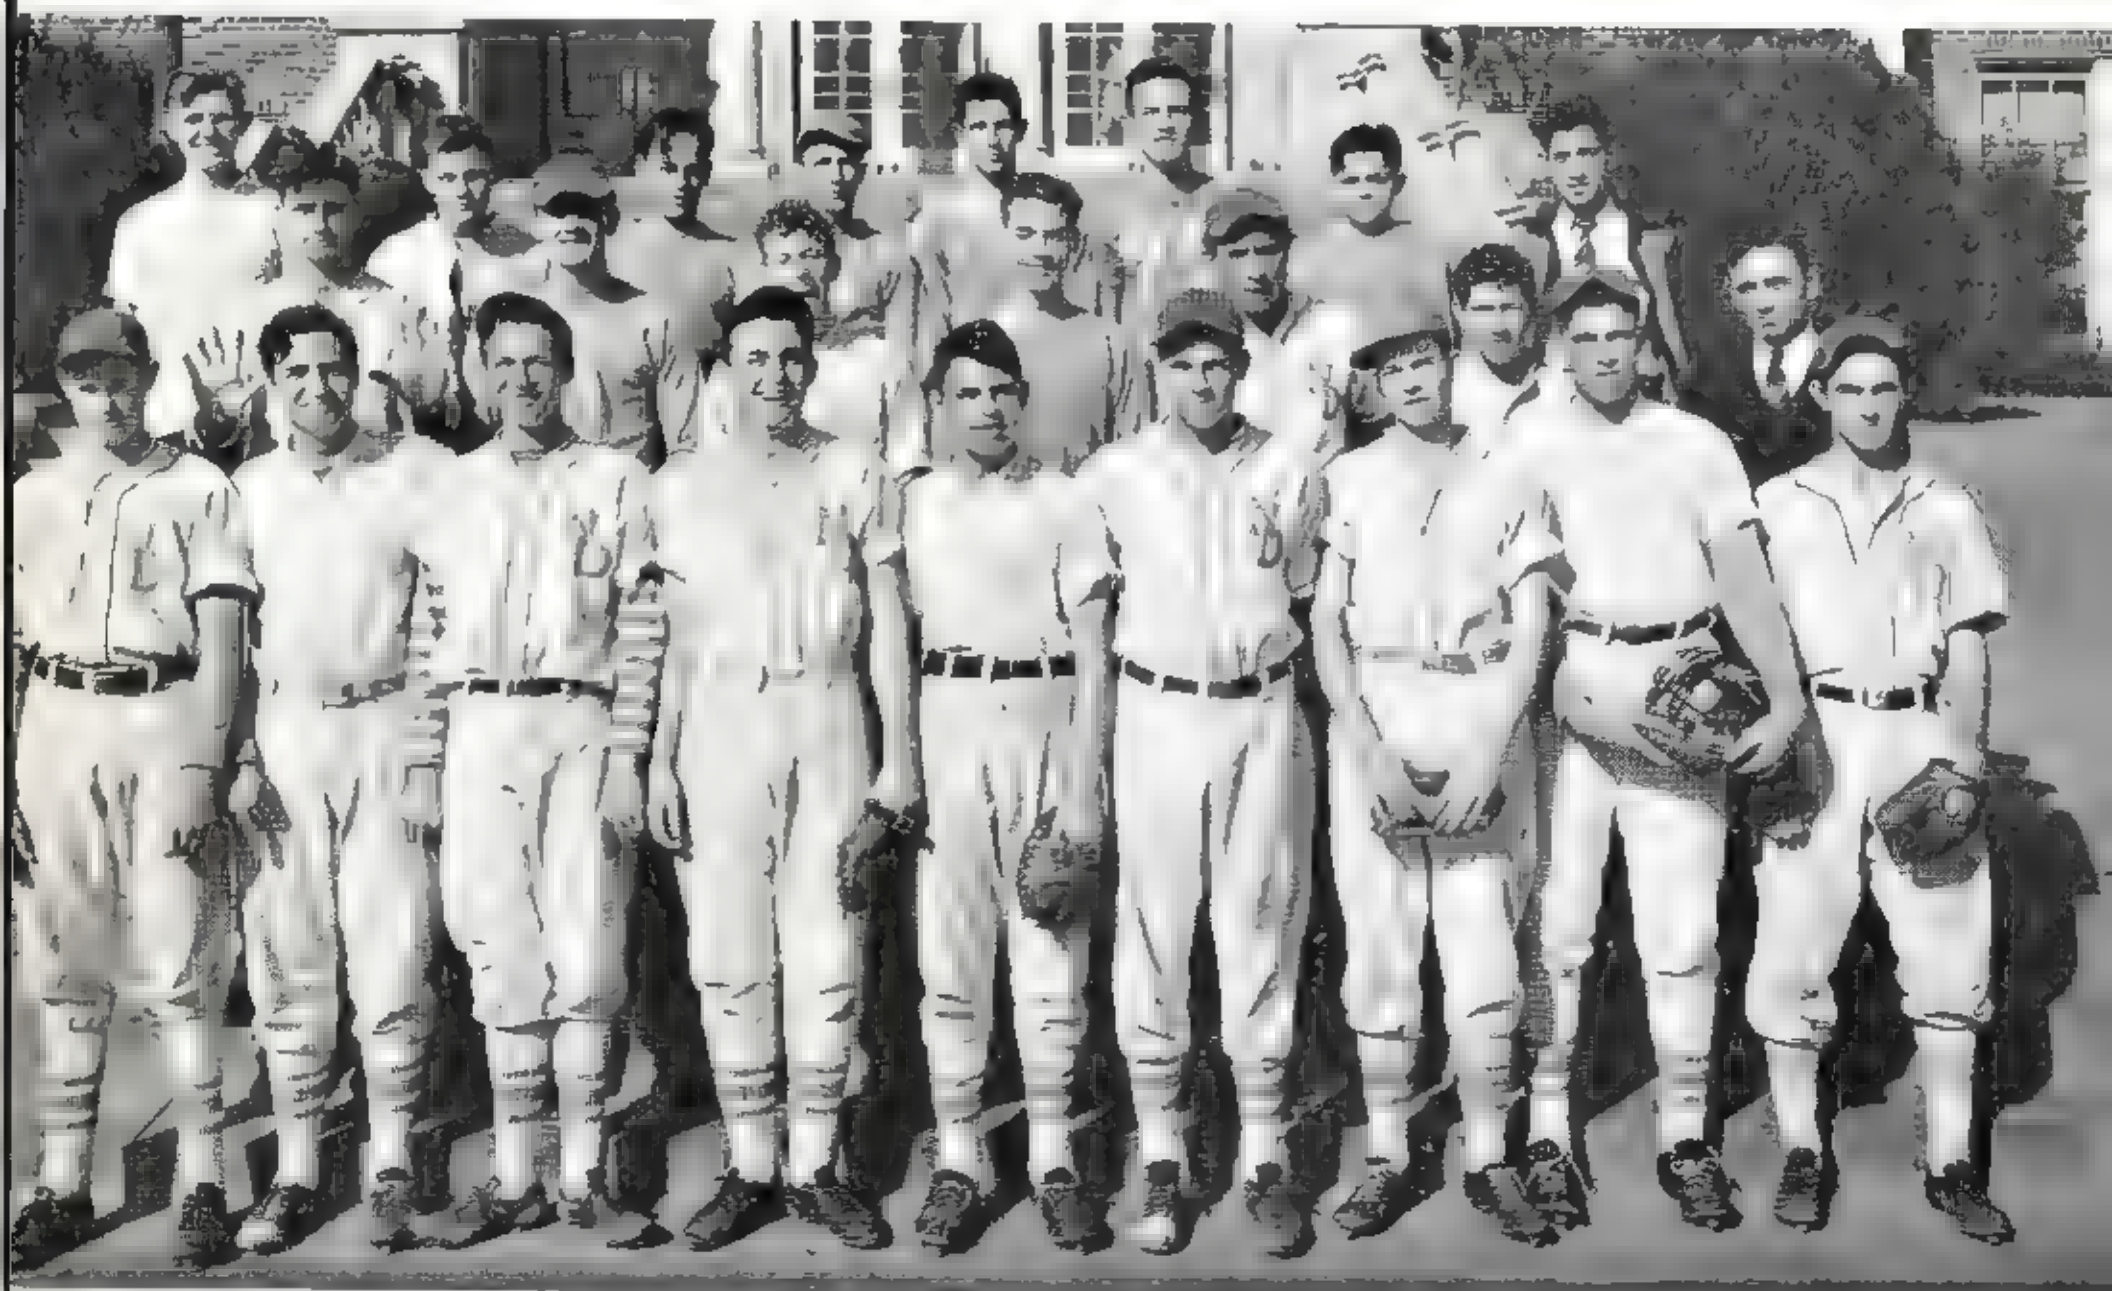

With only two returning lettermen, the North Dallas thinly-clads captured 15 points to place fifth in the City Track Meet at Ownby Stadium, April 4. The loss of Foy Garrison and Frank Farris, last year's stars, was felt heavily. Two seconds were gained by Captain Jimmy Wilson in the high hurdles and Jack Hagan in the high jump. Three third places were captured by James Compton, Richard Hoskins, and Peyton Cullum. Richard Hardy, Elwood Townsley, and the mile relay team composed of Paul Perella, Romey Hall, Robert Harris, and Peyton Cullum placed fourth.

Orange and White athletes lettering in the City Meet were Jimmy Wilson, Jack Hagan, and Peyton Cullum. Coach Rufus Hyde selected Edwin May as manager.

Golf

This season's Golf Team, captained by Jack Nichols, contains no lettermen, but they are not green. Every member has at least two or three years of experience behind him. In mid-season, the Bulldogs have nearly a five hundred per cent average in the win column. The team consists of Frank Crowley, Jack Nichols, Dan Carson, and Lawrence Kleuser.

Baseball

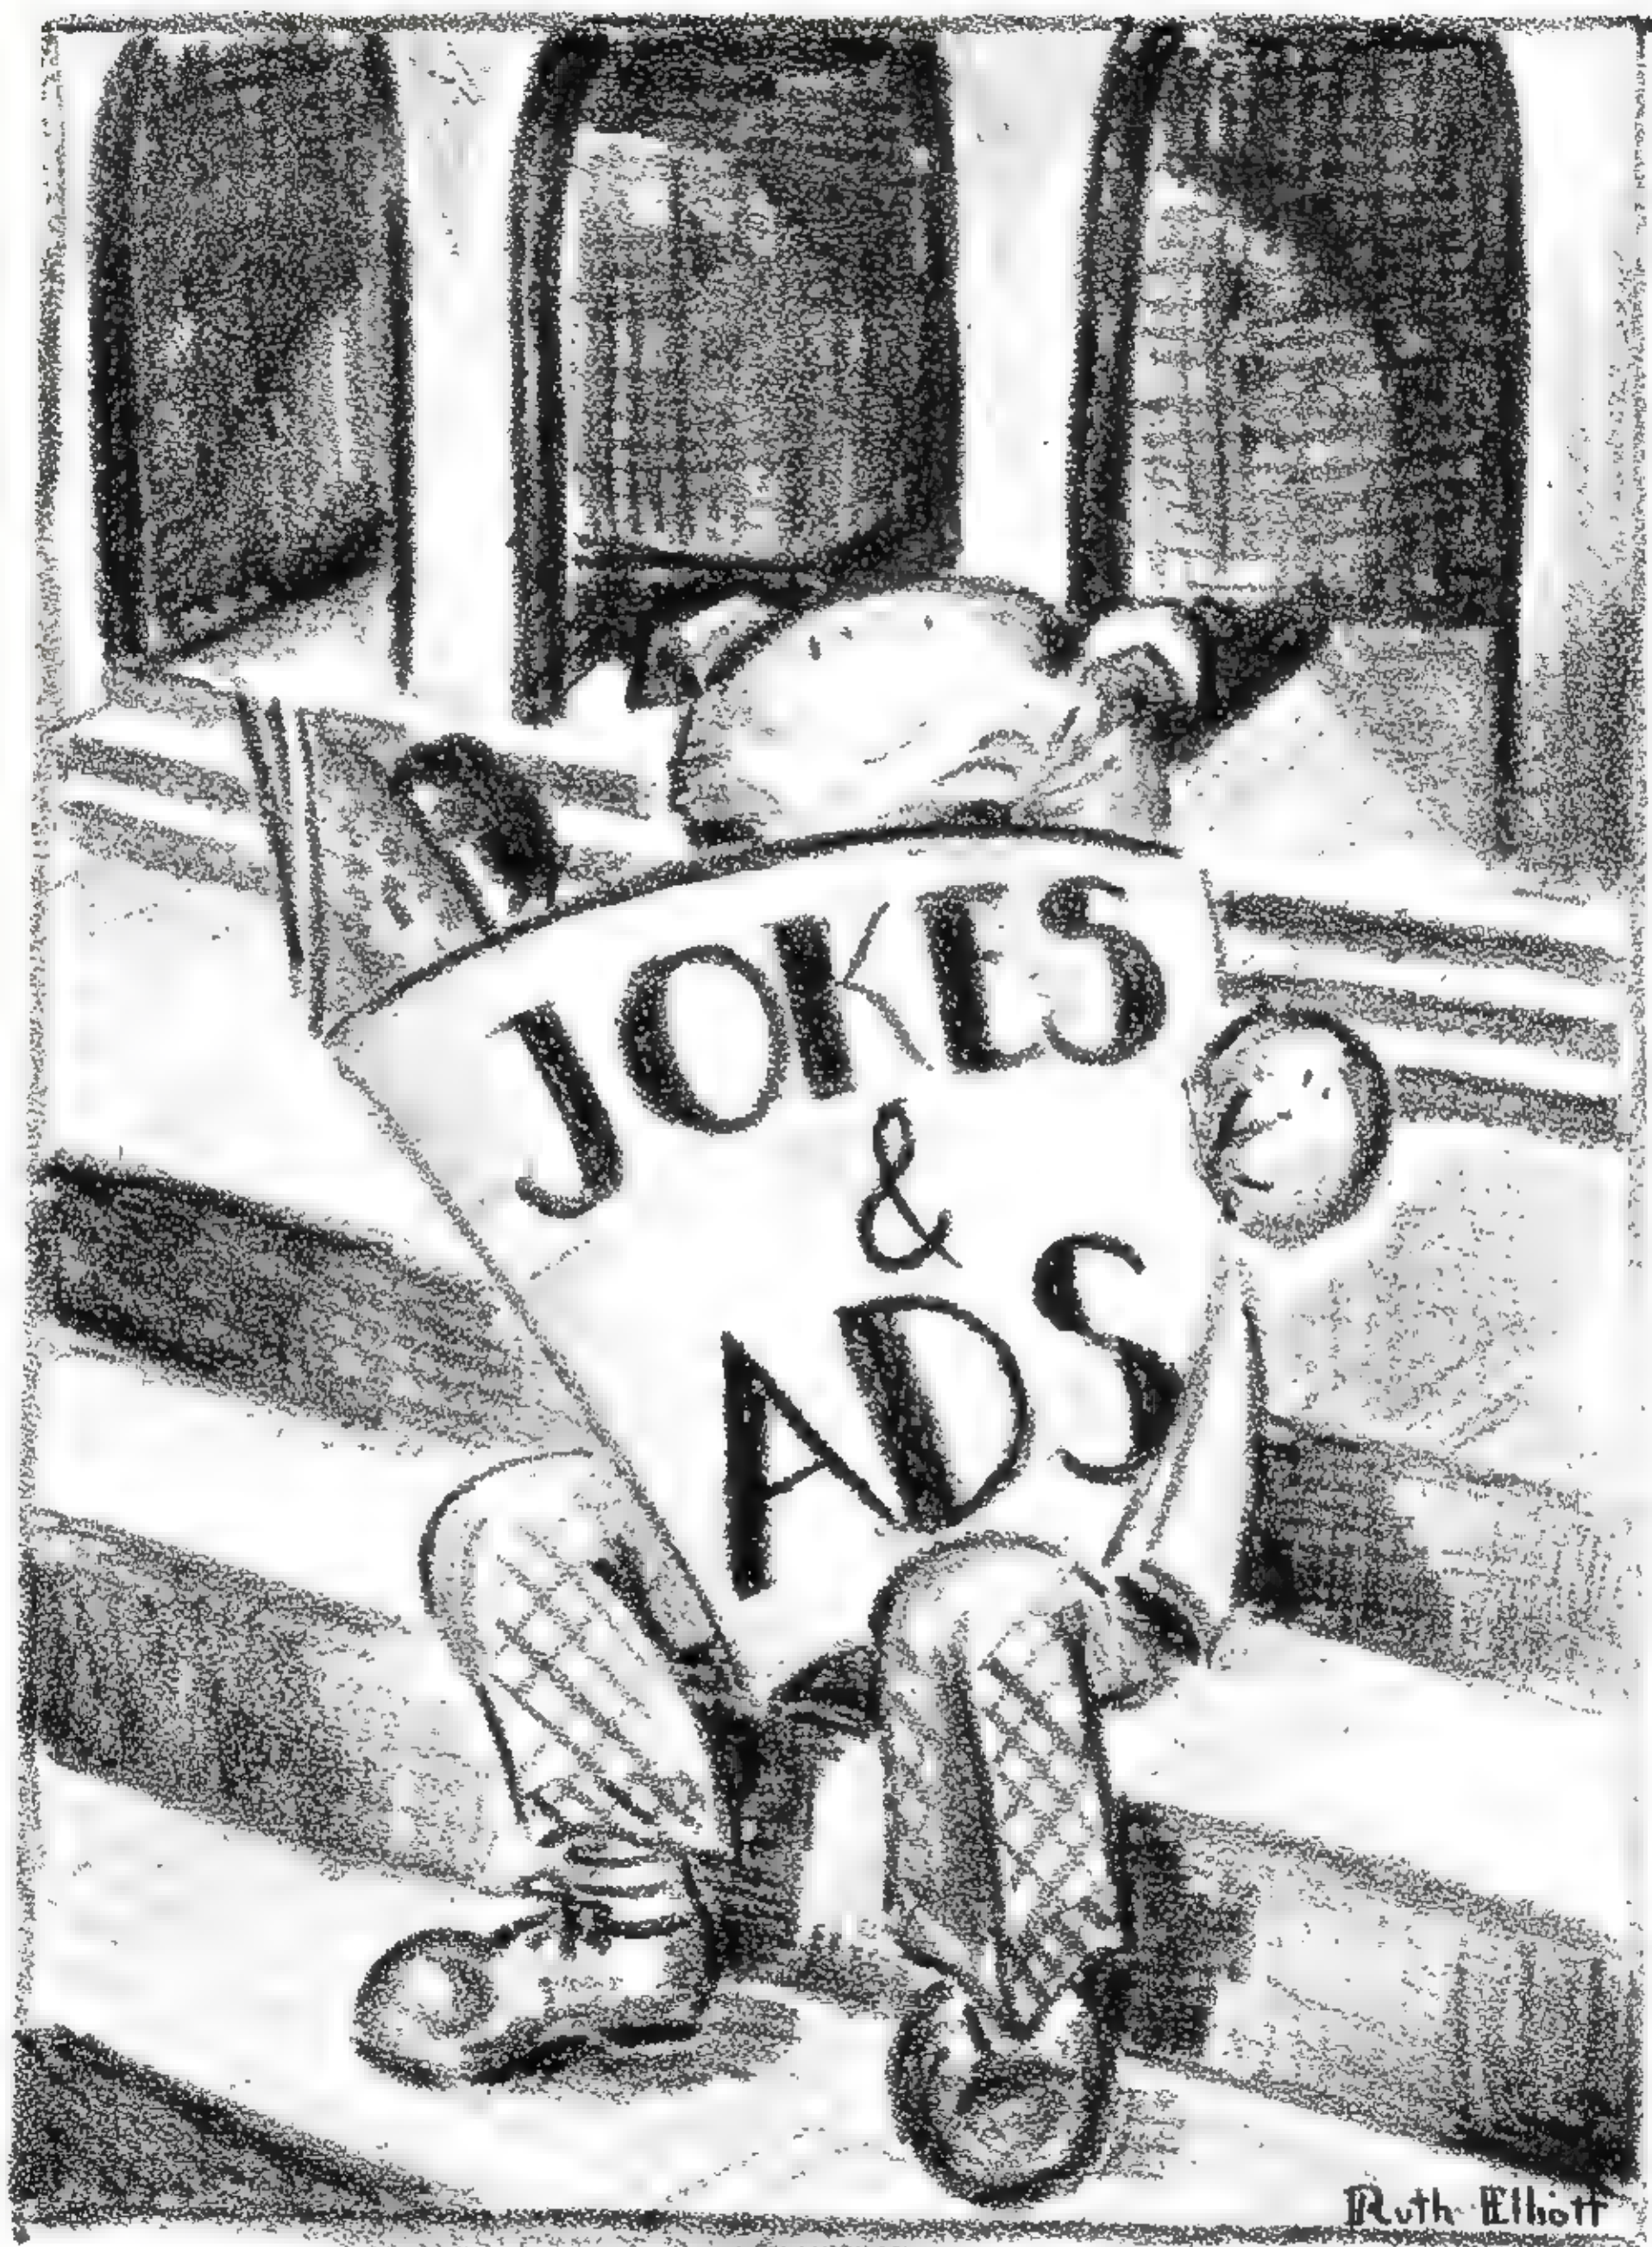

With a letterman for each position, the North Dallas Bulldogs opened the 1940 baseball season with prospects of a championship team. Ten lettermen reported to Coach Brownie Fulton at the beginning of the season. The unusually large number listed Chester Klein, Jim Fitzpatrick, Elwood Townsley, Charles Lancaster, Henry Martinez, Julius Whately, Bob Mullarkey, Lawrence Moellenberg, Martin Skaggs, and Davis Howell—all good fielders and experienced hitters.

These boys displayed a superior brand of ball during the pre-series practice games with city and outside competition. Highland Park, Sunset, Woodrow Wilson, Plano, and other strong clubs fell before the mighty bats of the Bulldogs. Before city series competition began, a few switches were made. Davis Howell was changed from short to pitcher to capitalize on the blinding speeds of his throws. Melvin Hill took over the hot corner to complete the line-up.

In their first city-series games the Canines were turned back by the Teck Wolves, 10 to 6. It was a bitter, hard fought contest with the Bulldogs finally ending up with the short end of the score. The Sunset Bisons, city leader, next showed little effort in defeating the Orange and White, 23 to 10. Errors and weak pitching lost the Forest game for the Bulldog nine by the score of 13 to 1.

Playing errorless ball, the North Dallas Bulldogs defeated the strong Adamson Leopards, 3 to 0. Davis Howell pitched a four-hit game while his comrades outhit the Adamson nine. Coach Fulton's boys showed sparkling ability in shutting out the Leopards.

The Canines were slow starting, but they have improved amazingly and have hopes to place in the city race.

"Rastus, don't you colored folks ever have any troubles to worry you?"

"Yas-suh, Colonel, but every time I sit down to worry, I just naturally goes to sleep."

Community gossip:

"Why does so small a cavity feel so large to the tongue, doctor?"

"Just the natural tendency of the tongue to exaggerate, I suppose."

Marine Corporal (at party): "Do you know that ugly sap of an officer standing over there? He's the meanest egg I have ever seen."

She: "Do you know who I am? I'm that officer's daughter."

Corporal: "Do you know who I am?"

She: "No."

Corporal: "Thank goodness."

Patron: "What are the prices of the seats, please?"

Usber: Front seats $1.00, back seats 50c, and programs 5c."

Patron: "I'll sit on the program, please." ing?"

Barber: "Was your tie red when you came in here?"

Customer: "No, it wasn't."

Barber: "Gosh, I must have cut your throat."

New Typist (following rapid-fire dictation): "Now, Mr. Jones, what did you say between 'Dear Sir' and 'Sincerely yours'?"

Cop: Who was driving when you hit that car?

Drunk: None of us; we were all in the back seat.

"Won't you have something more to eat, Mr. Smith?" asked the hostess.

"Well, just a mouthful," he replied.

"James, fill Mr. Smith's plate."

The saddest story of the month was about the too observant fellow who remarked to his girl. "Your stockings seem rather wrinkled."

"You brute," exclaimed the girl, "I have no stockings on."

Ruth rode in my new cycle car,
On the seat back of me;
I took a bump at fifty-five,
And rode on Ruthlessly.

Gent: Waiter, take this steak out and have it cooked.

Waiter: But, it is cooked.

Gent: Pshaw! I've seen cows hurt worse than that stand up and walk away.

'Tis better to have halitosis than no breath at all.

On a crowded street-car.

"Madam, would you like me to get you a strap to hold on?"

"No, thank you, I have one."

"Then would you mind letting go of my necktie?"

"Have you ever heard of the footprints of time?" inquired a Freshman.

"Of course," replied the Sophomore.

"Then where do they come from if time flies?"

Here's something for dull afternoons—buy a can of crushed pineapple and try to fit the pieces together.

Mr. Syron: "J. R., you can explain this problem, can you not?"

J. R. Dusek: "Certainly sir—what don't you understand about it?"

"I always believe in fighting the enemy with his own weapons."

"Really? How long does it take you to sting a wasp?"

"And when Lord Chesterfield saw that death was near," related the history professor, "he called his friends around him and just before he breathed his last uttered those immortal words. Who can tell me what those words were?"

The class responded in unison: "They Satisfy."

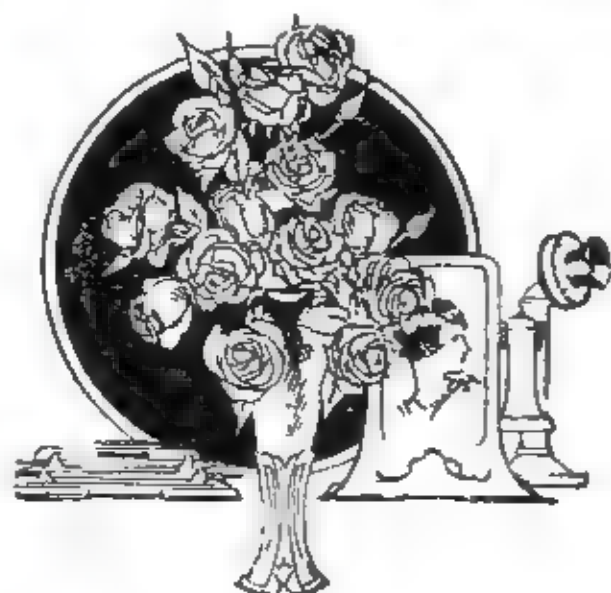

Barber: "Hair-cut?"

Jellybean: "No, just change the oil."

There was a man who fancied that
By driving good and fast,
He'd get his car across the track
Before the train came past.

He'd miss the engine by an inch and
Make the train crew sore.
There WAS a man who fancied this—
THERE ISN'T ANY MORE.

Professor: "Didn't you have a brother in this class last year?"

Student: "No, sir, it was I. I'm taking it over."

Professor: "Extraordinary resemblance."

To make a girl laugh at your jokes
Is really quite simple:
Just pick out one with pretty teeth,
Or one who has a dimple.

"Do you know what good clean fun is?"
"No, what good is it?"

Rescuer: "How was it that you came to fall in?"

Rescued: "I didn't come to fall in at all. I came to skate."

"I had to change my seat several times at the movies."

"Gracious, did a man get fresh?"

"Well, finally."

Farmer: "Be this the Woman's Exchange?"

Woman: "Yes."

Farmer: "Be ye the woman?"

Woman: "Yes."

Farmer: "Well, then, I think I'll keep Maggie."

Mother: "Sonny, don't use such bad words."

Son: "Shakespeare used them."

Mother: "Well, don't play with him."

He: "May I kiss you? May I please kiss you? Say, are you deaf?"

She: "No. Are you paralyzed?"

"Mama?"

"Yes, darling."

"Daddy isn't like other men, is he?"

"Why, what do you mean?"

"Because he just got tired waiting for the elevator, and went down the shaft without one."

Did you make the debating team?

N-n-o. They s-s-s-said I w-w-wasn't t-t-t-tall enough.

Charles Nesom: "Got something in your eye?"

Virginia Burke: "No, I'm just trying to look through my thumb."

Curious Old Lady: Why, you've lost your leg haven't you?

Cripple: Well, darn if I haven't.

A motorist was helping his extremely fat victim to rise.

"Couldn't you have gone around me?" growled the victim.

"Sorry, I wasn't sure whether I had enough gasoline," said the motorist.

Prof: "Do you read Shakespeare's works?"

Co-ed: "Yes, as fast as they come out."

There's a story been going around the faculty about the absent-minded professor and his absent-minded wife. It seems that the professor had just returned from a hard day's work, and after dinner he and his wife settled down in the livingroom to enjoy the radio. Suddenly there was a sharp knock on the door. "My husband!" gasped the absent-minded wife.

"My heavens," said the professor, and jumped out the window.

"Whatcha been doing this summer?"

"Not a thing."

"Who ya working for?"

Gent: "Is it true that my son has owed you for a suit for five years?"

Tailor: "Yes. Do you wish to pay the bill?"

Gent: "No—I would like a suit on the same terms."

The inspector looked up from the photograph. "Why?" he asked.

Benny Goodman, the swing maestro, was being interviewed by a student of Central High, Detroit.

"I hope you don't mind, but are you married, sir?" asked the reporter.

Replied Goodman: "I am not married and I don't mind, either."

There are two kinds of cleverness in wit, and both are priceless. One consists in thinking of a bright remark in time to say it! the other consists of thinking of it in time not to say it.

Socialism—You have two cows and give one to your neighbor.

Communism—You have two cows and give both to the Government, and the Government gives you the milk.

Fascism—You keep the cows and give the milk to the Government; and the Government sells it back to you.

Nazism—The Government shoots you and takes the cows.

New Dealism—The Government kills one cow, milks the other and throws the milk away.

"My daughter is to be married to an Earl, and he has just cabled to me to come across."

Gently, he pushed her quivering shoulders back against the chair. She raised beseeching eyes in which faint hope and fear were struggling. From her parted lips, the breath came in short, wrenching gasps. Reassuringly, he smiled at her.

Bzzzzzz, went the dentist's drill.

House Mother: "Young man, we turn out the lights here at 10:30 sharp."

Freshman: "Gee, that's swell."

"Whenever I'm in the dumps, I get myself a new hat," said Mrs. Hall.

"I was wondering where you got them," purred her friend.

A little girl was taken by her father to an old fashioned church for the first time. She stared for a while, open-mouthed, watching the old highland minister, shut up in a box pulpit, thumping the Bible in the accepted style and waving his arms like flails. Unable to stand it any longer, she whispered tearfully,

"Father, what'll we do if he gets out?"

In a civil service examination given some time ago, one of the questions asked was the following: "If a man buys an article for $12.25, and sells it for $9.75, does he gain or lose by the transaction?"

One woman gave the following answer:

"He gains on the cents, but loses on the dollars."

"Then you admit that you struck the plaintiff with malice forethought?" demanded the council for the plaintiff.

"You can't mix me up like that," replies the defendant indignantly. "I've told you twice I hit him with a brick. There wasn't no mallets nor nothing of the kind about it."

Making love is like baking bread—all you need is lots of dough and plenty of crust.

James: "Why does butter run when it's hot?"

Helen: "It's yellow."

Child: "Daddy, can I ask you a question?"

Father: "Yes, dear, but it must be a short one."

Child: "If a doctor is doctoring a doctor, does the doctor doing the doctoring have to doctor the doctor the way the doctor being doctored wants to be doctored, or does the doctor doctoring the doctor, doctor the doctor in his own way?"

Officer (to recruit): "Don't you know better than to point an empty gun at me?"

Recruit: "But it's not empty, sir. It's loaded!"

Customer (coming into office): "Isn't anybody working around here?"

Office Girl: "Nope. The boss is away on our vacation."

A worthy missionary in India had the hymn "Rock of Ages" translated into Hindustani. On retranslation into English by a student, the first two lines bore this inspiring and illuminating aspect:

"Very old stone, split for my benefit.
Let me absent myself under your fragments."

Smith: "So your son is in college? How is he making it?"

Smithers: "He isn't. I'm making it and he's spending it."

Lady Motorist: "Can you fix this fender so my husband won't know that I dented it?"

Mechanic: "No, ma'am, but I can fix it so in about a week you can ask him how he did it."

There was a young man from Japan
Whose limericks never would scan.

When asked why it was,
He answered, "Because
I always try to get everything in the last line that I possibly can."
